2013 • 2014 • 2015 • 2016 • 2017 • 2018 • 2019
Wine Spectator Award

PLEASE ask if you would like to see our wine book, it includes descriptions of all the wines

Buy Local :: Buy New York :: Buy American
we feature American producers + American owned imports.

As always, we suggest drinking what you like.
Wines are personally selected by Chef/Owner Randall Brown.
Our servers will be happy to recommend a few selections based on your likes and your dinner selections, please make use of their experience.

We include ratings when we can from a variety of sources
Ratings: 85-90 'very good', well made & represents the style.
over 90 indicate excellent bottles.
over 94 are considered "classic", the best.

DECANTING

Some of our older red selections have natural sediment. Please be patient and we will decant the wine for your full enjoyment.

Some (particularly unfiltered) wines have natural tartaric acid crystals. They are heavier than the wine and will collect at the bottom of the bottle in white wines or crystalize at the bottom of the cork in reds. They are tasteless and are not indicative of any flaw. Decanting is not necessary, just leave them at the bottom of the bottle.

Some younger red wines that are 'big, muscular, tough, tannic' styles may benefit from decanting as it promotes aeration and softens the wine. Your server may recommend decanting or feel free to ask that we decant.

BON APPETIT ! ENJOY !

PETER MICHAEL CHARDONNAY... "Consider that they work with Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Sauvignon Blanc as well as Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc, they produce world-class wines from all of these. Of course, they have had some fabulous winemakers pass through, including the likes of Helen Turley and Mark Aubert, Luc & Nicolas Morlet. Much of the credit goes to Sir Peter Michael who gives them carte blanche, and expects their very best."

MARCASSIN CHARDONNAY Marcassin is probably California's greatest Chardonnay ... and while both their Chardonnay and Pinot Noir have many competitors these days (from the likes of Harford Court, Mark Aubert, Kistler, Kongsgaard, DuMol, Kosta-Browne, Peter Michael, Martinelli and Luc Morlet, to name a few), John Wetlaufer and Helen Turley remain the reigning geniuses of these two varietals in California.
